

Whiskeytown, Dancing With The Women At The Bar

when I see the moon, I hear the sound of the strip just calling my name
yeah it's calling my name
man I love the feeling
when I go out
dancing with the women at the bar
when I go out
I always know my woman's close somewhere my daddy saw the moon, heard the sound of the strip it called out his name
my daddy saw the moon, and heard the sound of the strip yeah it called out his name and it called his son's name too
when I go out
dancing with the women at the bar
when I go out
close somewhere
when you see the moon, hear the sound of the strip yeah call out my name
and if you see the moon, hear the sound of the strip
yeah call my friend's names too
when I go out
close somewhere
