

Whiskeytown, Mining Town

said you came from a mining town but they closed the mining down said your daddy was a drinker he had a picture of jesus on his sinker maybe i... maybe i'm coming for you tonight this town's only five miles wide look everywhere there's a road sign on tops and places to hide and cops sit around hungry waitin to dine
maybe i... maybe i'm coming for you tonight
maybe i... maybe i'm coming for you tonight
said you came from a mining town they closed the mining down said your momma was a drinker she had a picture of jesus on her sink and maybe i... maybe i'm coming for you tonight
maybe i... maybe i'm coming for you tonight maybe i..... baby, i'm coming for you tonight.
