

Whiskeytown, Revenge

whatever happened to you?
you've changed.
and i'm still wrong (?????)
i know you wanted to stay so long
and i'm still alone (???)
there were no secrets
there were no stories
there was no one around
there were no reasons
there was no questions
there is no point now
whatever happened to you?
you've changed.
and i'm still (?????)
(?????????????????)
so tell me your secret
did you want to see me pull my guns (?????????)
so tell me your secret
there were no stories
nobody won
i'll give you a reason
and i'll wage a war (?????????)
with a punch from your face (?????????)
i'll stand my guard
i'll give you a reason
you might see it
you might hate it
you might never know your name (???????)
so tell me a secret
tell me one more lie
.....(?????????????????)
