

Whiskeytown, Theme For A Trucker

so you're a trucker
hard driver
mr king of the road
feelin' lonely
drinkin' coffee
she had only ever known
drove a lot today
was it yesterday?
just a memory you know
you can't dilute it
or see to it
roll through it
you head home

there is a motel with a vacancy
there is no possibility you could drive yourself to ever be the man you once were

so you're a trucker
mr king of the road
feelin' lonely
drinkin' coffee
she was all he'd ever known
drove a lot today
was it yesterday?
it's just a memory you know you can't see through an old tune
roll through it
and head home

there is a motel with a vacancy
there is no possibility.
but you could drive yourself to ever be
the man you once were.
