

White Kaps, NRA

hold it, you win again, you're always right i never am i always lose, you always win so leave me alone, champion why do you keep carry'n on when i admitted i was wrong let's bring this shit to an end, blow it off c'mon friend

no real attitude

look! up there in the sky, it's you, you're flying by you're superman, you're the perfect man you always win, i never can you, you know so much, you, can tell me about myself you can show me how to grow tell me now what i don't know

[Chorus:]

can't you see this fucking mess

playing games like all the rest in your mind you are right blow it off, * who's right

in your mind you are right blow it off, * who's right you, think you've heard everything there is to hear you, think you've said everything there is to say hold it, why do you come around obviously you can't stand this clown

i always lose, you always win so leave me alone, champion
