

Whitesnake, Come An Get It

Are you woman enough
To take a man like me,
Baby, I know what you got
You make it easy to see.
Now I wanna give you my loving
Believe me, babe, its true,
Maybe more than you bargained for,
But, now its up to you.
So if you want it, come an get it,
I got something for you.
If you want it, come an get it,
Ill leave it up to you.
Are you a women who takes
Anything you want,
Or the kind who says that you do
Then tell me later you dont.
Now I wanna give you my loving
I knew the moment we met,
You gotta take me as you find me, baby,
Cos what you see is what you get.
So if you want it, come an get it,
I got something for you.
If you want it, come an get it,
Ill leave it up to you,
Its right to you baby.

I got something for you.
