

Whitesnake, Sweet lady luck

You hold all the answers,
Never get a chance to appeal.
Flick of the wrist and you cut me down,
I'm spinning like a rolling wheel.
You say that love's a gamble
But, you play with loaded dice.
You hide behind a good girl smile
With a heart stone cold as ice.
But, I want it, I need it
If you don't give it I'll steal it,
I'll take it all and walk away.
Lady luck,
You're a loser in the game of love, sweet lady luck.
Who you gonna call when it all falls down on you, sweet lady luck.
You can't stop your dealing
'Cos it's a crying shame,
When the winner takes it all
And never ever takes the blame.
But I want it, I need it
If you don't give it I'll steal it,
I'll take it all and walk away.
Lady luck,
You're a loser in the game of love, sweet lady luck.
Who you gonna call when it all falls down on you.
Uh, what you gonna do?
Lady luck.
(Solo)
I need your love, I need it now,
I've got to have it anyhow,
Sweet lady luck.
I can't win for losing,
It's tearing me apart.
So I'll play the joker to your Queen of Broken Hearts.
But, I want it, I need it,
If you don't give it I'll steal it
I'll take it all and walk away.
Lady luck,
You're a loser in the game of love, sweet lady luck.
Spinning like a rolling wheel, sweet lady luck.
You're a loser in the game of love, sweet lady luck.
I need your love, I need it now,
I've got to have it anyhow.
