

Why Store, Heaven In You

There's a heaven in you
There's a heaven in me
There's a heaven in you
There's a heaven in me
Let me take you on this journey
Let me take you for this ride
Come along and you will witness
Look inside your worried mind, yeah!
Temptation is the creature
Temptation is the key
Let us all love the preacher
Maybe he will set us free, yeah!
When he was just a young man
Well he thought that he could try
When he was just a young man
Well the times went by
Now he sees...
Falling down
This race is turning to the sky
Will they ever let us in?
Falling down
Will we ever find out why?
Is it too late to begin? No, no, no
