

Why Store, Lack Of Water

Lack of water
Got to free yourself
Maybe I'm to blame
But it's not too far to see
Got to close the curtains
Before I get free
Shelter is a place
That I would like to behold
Better get to getting
Before I get old

Lack of water
Got to free yourself
All I need is the water

Times are changing
Worlds are breaking turning me around
Never run for shelter
Cause I can't hear the sound
Try so hard to leave it
But it takes me away
Pushing back the power
Now it's so sad to say

Lack of water
Got to free yourself
All I need is the water

Maybe I'm to blame
But it's not too far to see
Got to close the curtains
Before I get free
Shelter is a place
That I would like to behold
Better get to getting
Before I get old

Lack of water
Got to free yourself
All I need is the water
