

Why Store, Lend You The Money

I'll lend you the money, honey
I'll lend you the money, girl
So many ways to love a man
So many ways to be true
These are things you don't understand
That's why it's happening to you
Life says do you ever want
Forty words less demands
Whoa how they haunt
Forget your worries babe
Won't you put them aside
Well I'll be the one who's there
Whoa to stand by your side
