

Why Store, Sleepy Little Train To Memphis

I'm on a sleepy little train to Memphis
Tijuana's on my mind
I'm on a sleepy little train to Memphis
Tijuana's on my mind
Said my woman she done left me
She's Mexico-bound tonight
All right, if you got yourself a woman boy
Better learn to treat her right
You got yourself a woman boy
Better learn to treat her right
You're gonna wake up some day
She'll be out the door
She'll be out of sight, yeah all aboard
Yeah a little story telling
You got to get back to the basics boy
Learn to treat her well
Don't you go treating her bad
She's gonna put you through hell
Don't you ever tell her no
Yeah! You know that's really, really bad
You're gonna wake up someday
Lose the best thing you ever had, all aboard
