

Why Store, Weeping

You're weeping over your shoulder
Yes you're weeping over and over
Your mind is erased
You're leaving this place
You're digging a hole
In this holy grave
And all my life
I can see you weeping
There's no one to blame
You're riding this wave
You'd turn your cheek
But it's all the same
And all my life
I can see you weeping
Fool-hearted love gonna let me be
Fool-hearted love gonna let you see
Fool-hearted love gonna make me
If freedom's what you want
Then freedom's what you'll get from me, yeah!
