

Wide Mouth Mason, All It Amounts To

Born in a world that's years away
Can you see my face I don't want to stay
Yes I'm free but lost today
Don't forget to keep my name
That's all it amounts to
I want to breathe
And I want to see
So go ahead and keep on crying
Till you reach the end of your years
While the children die trying
Their dreams are your fears
