

Wide Mouth Mason, Alright, Alright

He never found out
But he had his doubts
From the moment she looked over his shoulder
And he wondered out loud
What she thought about
As she listened to the things that he told her

Alright
Say it
Bring it on
I'm waiting
'Cause I know
You're lying
Spit it out
I'm begging you

Carry it out like you dreamed about
And remember I can tell when you fake it
I'm sitting right here
Tell me loud and clear
All the reasons that you get what you're taking

Alright
Alright
Alright

Alright
Say it
Bring it on
I'm waiting
'Cause I know
You're lying
Spit it out
I'm begging you
