

Wide Mouth Mason, Scratch

Stand back the wreck is going down
Yeah I think I see it now
All the mommas yelling "Baby come back!"

Oil
Money
Water
Air and guns
Everybody want a piece
Yelling, "Come and get it"
Yeah they had you scared and

Waiting
To scratch an itchy trigger finger
For a while now

You'll scratch it off
You'll scratch it off
You'll scratch it off
You're gonna

A strong arm'll come and pick it up
With a sponsor on the truck
And the cameras rolling "Baby come back!"

God thinks you ought to do it
Television get you to it
Stuff it in your mouth you blew it
Yeah they had you scared and

Waiting
To scratch an itchy trigger finger
Won't you try it now

You'll scratch it off
You'll scratch it off
You'll scratch it off
You're gonna

You'll scratch it off
You'll scratch it off
You'll scratch it off
You're gonna

Oh
Is it back
On again
I've seen this one
Here's the part
They fall in love
It's all alright
In black and white
A perfect girl
A perfect boy
A silver spoon
A pretty toy
It's just enough
It's just enough

You'll scratch it off
You'll scratch it off

You're gonna

And the joker's got 'em rolling in the aisles now

Waiting

To scratch an itchy trigger finger won't you try it now

You'll scratch it off

You'll scratch it off

You'll scratch it off

You're gonna
