

Wide Mouth Mason, She's Alone

Ordinary time
I'm the one to blame
Holding something back
Feeling so ashamed
Ordinary laugh
This was not the game
Now i understand
Never be the same

You came to me
For the truth
That you needed to know

Ordinary day
How's it gonna end
Trail and losing real
Or a willing pretend

Ordinary sound
Shouted out your name
Still I made you laugh
Here we go again

Wash away the stains
No one will see them
As long as she can breathe
She doesn't care

You came to me
For the truth
That you needed to know

I broke the trust
And you
Are the innocent one

You came to me
For the truth
That you needed to know

I lost the love
For you
Now I'm coming undone

Ordinary plan
Watch it go astray
Slipping through my hands
Have to look away

Ordinary words
Trying to explain
There's no turning back
Now I feel no pain

Wash away the stains
No one will see them
As long as she can breathe
She doesn't care

Maybe it's a dream
Nothing was real since
She let her feelings die
Now she's alone

You came to me
For the truth
That you needed to know

I broke the trust
And you
Are the innocent one

You came to me
For the truth
That you needed to know

I lost the love
For you
Now I'm coming undone

Oh you you came to me
For the truth
That you needed to know

Yeah
Yeah