

Wide Mouth Mason, Tom Robinson

Well, the woman said now come into my room
I don't mean to be rude but like it matters
And the woman said now what've you got to lose
It's what you were made to do, that's what matters

The daddy said I'm throwing my bones on you
So what if it was me and not you 'cause like it matters
And the jury said we're throwing the book on you
Would've hung you but for the old fool that's what matters

Run, run Tom Robinson
You've got to run, yes Tom Robinson
Atticus can't save you now

Well, the woman said now come into my room
I don't mean to be rude but like it matters
And the woman said now do I offend you
It's what you were made to do and that's what matters

Run, run Tom Robinson
You've got to run, oh run Tom Robinson
Run, run, oh Tom Robinson
I said run, run, oh Tom Robinson
You've got to run, run, run, run, run, run, run Tom Robinson
Run on
