

Widelife, I Don't Want You came home today, just another day been working hard, just to pay our bills other days ,into my room, to my surprise someone is waiting, i've told you once, i've told you twice dont want to hear your tired lies, so pack your bags, cause i don't want you coming back no more i don't want you coming back no more

So pack your bags, get out that door dont want to see, your face no more
cause i don't want you, i dont want you, no
