

Widespread Panic, The Waker

My name is the Waker
And I'm bringin' you the morning sun
I've pushed the old man up forever
Still I feel I've just begun

I've just begun

My name is treetop
And I'm higher than you'll ever be
I'm married to my roots here
Still I feel like I am free

Feelin' I'm free

My name is blue sky
And I'm bluer than all of you
I've watched you run around forever
Always searching for something new

There's nothing new

Feelin' I'm free

I've just begun

I'm always young

Love's always new
