

wigwam, Tell Me Where To Go

Looking closer in the palm of my hand
So many lines that i don't understand
All i want is my sweet paradise
The secret lies behind your dark blue eyes
Hold me closer and look up in the skies
Give me sweet little lies

Can you tell me where to go
Can you tell me where to be
Will you open up a door for me, and guarantee
That you'll let me stay inside

Can you tell me where to run
Can you tell me where to hide
Can you put all my troubles aside, and be my guide
Please help me fly away

Your crystal-ball, will it ever show
What i need to know
When its time to let go

Every time and then i need to break free
From my steady decline, to where i want to be

At the end of the day
I'm still miles away

Can you tell me where to go
Can you tell me where to be
Will you open up a door for me, and guarantee
That you'll let me stay inside

Can you tell me where to run
Can you tell me where to hide
Can you put all my troubles aside, and be my guide
Please help me fly away

Chasing rainbows, but i'm wondering why
I can still remeber every mountain i've climbed
What will i find above the cloudy skies

Can you tell me where to be
Will you open up a door for me, and guarantee
That you'll let me stay inside

Can you tell me where to run
Can you tell me where to hide
Can you put all my troubles aside, and be my guide
Please help me fly away

Tell me where to go.....

Tell me where to go.....
