

Wilburn Brothers, Blues Plus Booze (Means I Lose)

Just last night my love said she was leaving I sat right there and cried until the dawn
Then booze was added to the pain and heartbreak
The combination keep all trouble from then on Blues plus booze means I lose not a right combination for anyone to choose
Nobody knows the feeling till he's been in my shoes blues plus booze means I lose

Tonight I'm fast forgetting how she left me
But tomorrow pain will come on quite as strong
I order stronger booze and louder music like I'm happy for tonight but not for long
Blues plus booze...
Blues plus booze means I lose
