

Wilburn Brothers, I'm Beginning To Know About Me

I'm beginning to know know about me every little thing a man should see Without you I am nothing and I know I'll never be
I'm beginning to know know about me

Mistakes I've made I never can undo why were they made while I was loving you
My heart was such a foolish heart that loved so carelessly
Your leaving taught me so much about me
I'm beginning to know...
I'm beginning to know know about me
