

Wilburn Brothers, If I Had Yesterday Over Again

Today I know just what I would say if I had yesterday over again
For I never let you just walk away if I had yesterday over again
As you walked away your eyes seemed to say don't let me go please tell me to stay
Don't go I love you that's what I would say if I had yesterday over again (piano - steel)
As you walk away you're eyes seem to say...
