

Wilburn Brothers, It Looks Like The Sun's Gonna

Oh it looks like the sun's gonna shine shine
Since you've said you'd be mine
The dark clouds are gone and the blue skies are mine
And it looks like the sun's gonna shine

Well I got up this morning and singing a song
I ain't been singing for so doggone long
Feel like I'm rich though I ain't got a dime
And it looks like the sun's gonna shine
Oh it looks like the sun's gonna...

(steel)

With every sunrise since you came my way
I've got my world's gonna have a pretty day
With your arms around me I'm feeling so fine
And it looks like the sun's gonna shine
Oh it looks like the sun's gonna...
Oh it looks like the sun's gonna...
Oh it looks like the sun's gonna shine
Yes it looks like the sun's gonna shine
