

Wilburn Brothers, Look Who's Lonely

(Loretta Lynn)

Well how many times have you waved bye bye and left me at home just to sit and cry

Now look who's lonely look who's blue

You didn't think you could ever lose now look who's wearin' my old shoes

Yeah look who's lonely look who's blue

You're wantin' me to take you back you're beggin' me to try

You can't look me in the eye when you say you've changed cause it's just another lie

Stop where you are cause you can't come in you ain't a gonna get in my heart again

Now look who's lonely look who's blue

(piano - steel)

You're down on your knees outside my door

But I haven't heard enough I wanna hear some more

Now look who's lonely look who's blue

How that all the neighbors are laughin' at you

I guess you know I think it kinda funny too

Yeah look who's lonely look who's blue

You're wantin' me...

Yeah look who's lonely look who's blue
