

Wilburn Brothers, Mighty Day

Well you left town when the sun went down and it ain't been up since then
But the mail today said you're headin' our way and now the sun's a gonna rise again
So I called everybody and I told 'em that we gotta get the celebration under way
My baby's been gone now she's comin' home happiness is on its way
It's a gonna be a mighty day in this old town tomorrow
That's when you're comin' home to stay
It's a gonna be a mighty day in this old town tomorrow
That's when the clouds will all roll away
(steel)
No need denyin' I've been cryin' every since you went away
But all the while I've been savin' me a smile for your homecoming day
So I called everybody and I told 'em that we gotta get the celebration under way
My baby's been gone now she's comin' home happiness is on its way
It's a gonna be a mighty day...
