

Wilburn Brothers, My Heart's Gonna Rise Again

My heart's gonna rise again gonna find someone and love again
Cause you can't keep a good heart down
It's true that when you left me you shattered all my dreams
And I was left a victim of your selfish schemes
If you thought when you dropped me my heart would break in two
Then you're gonna be surprised for I've got news for you
Oh my heart's a gonna rise again gonna find someone and love again
Cause you can't keep a good heart down
My heart's a gonna rise again gonna be all right and smile again
No you can't keep a good heart down
(dobro - steel)
I can't deny it hurt me to have to let you go
And I can't hide my sorrow I know it's bound to show
But if you hope to leave me and my heart's down and out
You'll be disappointed honey when you hear me shout
Oh my heart's a gonna rise again...
