

Wilburn Brothers, No Legal Right

No legal right to hold you but how can my arms let you go
I love you and I just can't help it with no legal right I know
No legal right to kiss you and my heart keeps asking me why
For you could just leave me tomorrow with no legal right to cry
No legal right to be with you to want you is wrong but I do
You're his that's what makes the big difference no legal right to love you ( ac.guitar )
No legal right to be with you...
