

Wilburn Brothers, Someone Else's Love

Someone else's arms are holding her tight someone else's lips are kissing her goodnight
She said she loved me so then said I have to go she wanted someone else's love
My baby's gone my baby's gone gone away from me
And I'm feeling mighty lonely I'm down with misery
Every day I pray she'll come walking in someone else's love will be my love again
She'll be just mine alone she'll be my very own she want to be someone else's love ( fiddle - steel )
My baby's gone my baby's gone...
