

Wilburn Brothers, Somethin' Good'll Happen Today

If you believe it won't be long till happiness is comin' your way
Join and while we sing this song somethin' good'll happen today
Somethin' good'll happen today somethin' good is comin' my way
I woke with a grin the sun walked in somethin' good'll happen today

If you have love inside and out then it'll be a happier way
Walk by fate don't ever doubt somethin' good'll happen today
Somethin' good'll happen...

(piano - guitar)

A smile though you're out on your luck and things aren't goin' your way
Helps to lift somebody up somethin' good'll happen today
Somethin' good'll happen...
Somethin' good'll happen today
