

Wilburn Brothers, Tell Me Nobody Counts But Me

Cross your fingers when we kiss make believe that it is true
Then tell me nobody counts but me
Although I know you're actin' I'll just have to make that due
So tell me nobody counts but me
Nobody counts nobody counts tell me nobody counts but me
Although I know you're actin' I'll just have to make that due
So tell me nobody counts but me
(guitar - steel)
Tell me I'm the only one well for I'd like to hear that lie
Then tell me nobody counts but me
You'll nestle in another's arms before the day goes by
But tell me nobody counts but me
Nobody counts nobody counts tell me nobody counts but me
You'll nestle in another's arms before the day goes by
But tell me nobody counts but me just tell me nobody counts but me
