

Wilburn Brothers, You Can't Break The Chains Of

Though we're apart you're always in my heart you can't break the chains of love dear
Wherever I go my heart will always know you can't break the chains of love
For I will always love you and swear by the stars up above
I'll be your slave till I am in my grave you can't break the chains of love ( steel - piano )
For I will always love you...
