

Wilco, Heavy Metal Drummer

I sincerely miss
Those heavy metal bands
I used to go see
On the landing in the summer
She fell in love with the drummer
She fell in love with the drummer
She fell in love

Shiny shiny pants
Bleached blonde hair
A double kick drum
By the river in the summer
She fell in love with the drummer
Another
Then another
She fell in love

I miss the innocence I've known
Playing Kiss covers
Beautiful and stoned

Unlock my body
Move myself to dance
Into warm liquid
Flowing blowing glass
Classical music blasting
Masks the ringing in my ears

Oh I sincerely miss
Those heavy metal bands
I used to go to see
On the landing in the summer
She fell in love with the drummer
She fell in love with another
She fell in love

I miss the innocence I've known
Playing Kiss covers
Beautiful and stoned
