

Wildhearts, Caffeine Bomb

Eyes dried tight, gotta get myself together
Need a kick-start cocktail, ten percent coffee with a
High-rise, family-size, guaranteed to catonize
The little bit of brain I got a-hanging on from last night

I need a double take, a-just to get awake
To try and counteract the hollow feeling nature makes
It's gonna work a treat, gonna get me on my feet
It's a teasing little tonic with a kick
Like a mule
And a skip on the beat

It ain't right, It ain't wrong
I need a bomb, I need a caffeine bomb
Too sweet, too strong
I need a bomb, I need a caffeine bomb
I need a bomb, I need a caffeine bomb
I need a bomb, I need a ca-ca-ca-ca caffeine bomb

Over-do the sugar and the coffee and the whiskey
In my biggest mug 'til the varnish starts to melt
I got a wake-up shake, any webbing I'm a-shredding
Any grogginess I felt before I sweated
All the poison
From my body to my quilt

And it's been too long
I need a bomb, I need a caffeine bomb
What a buzz, What a song
I need a bomb, I need a caffeine bomb
I need a bomb, I need a caffeine bomb
I need a bomb, I need a ca-ca-ca-ca-ca caffeine bomb

Hangover, so hungover
Pour me a doctor, send it over
Something that'll stop my legs from shaking
Something that'll stop my head from aching
Hangover, so hung over
Breath of a juiced-up holy roller pounding

Baby can't you see, I'm shitting out water
It's a case of easy come and easy go-o
I need a caffeine bomb to wake me in the morning
I need a caffeine bomb to get me to the show
Oh no, I think I wanna throw

Hands all sticky and I'm spilling all my whiskey on myself
My friends, my dog, my floor
My God, my head feels like something crawled inside it
But the medicine I ordered should be kicking any second
And I gotta be getting me more...

Let's go and get it on
I need a bomb, I need a caffeine bomb
Fay Wray, King Kong
I need a bomb, I need a caffeine bomb
I need a bomb, I need a caffeine bomb
I need a bomb, I need a ca-ca-ca-ca-ca-ca-ca-ca-ca caffeine bomb

I need a caffeine bomb
I need a caffeine bomb
