Wildhearts, New Flesh

We are born into a time of innocent Americans attacked for trying to job while some Bin Laden mot

Armageddon orchestrated, televised and exaggerated. We were lied to and we won't get fooled again.

We are, we are, we are the new flesh, we are, we are the only ones left. We're the dog you beat down once too much. We're the cornered rat that will fight back.

We are born into a time our population is divided, poor and hungry people share the planet with the Fame and fortune un-donated by the over paid and the over rated. We were lied to and we won't get fooled again.

We are, we are, we are the new flesh, We are, we are the only ones left. We're the dog you beat down once too much. We're the cornered rat that will fight back.

We are, we are the new flesh,

We are, we are the only ones left.
We're the dog you beat down once too much.
We're the cornered rat that will fight back.
