

Will Dailey, Rise

Im not in love

I do think I have tried

It costs too much

I dont have the money or the time

customary to fuck it up

Once or twice

Whats worse I kinda like the Beautiful mess

In a perfect world

We never came and we never left.

Do you find out what a kiss is for

Right before you die?

Just like when you were falling

I will be there when you rise

In all kinds of weather

I will be there when you rise

I know youre disappointed

Only as long as your let yourself

And all that is important

Is right where it has always been.

Do you find out what regret is for

Right before you die?

Just like when you were falling

I will be there when you rise

In all kinds of weather

I will be there when you rise

Oh it is the most peculiar feeling

When you dont know whats coming

After we die

I will be there when you rise

Boy, I remember all

You pain and fear

Come on, come on

You're still here

In every moment

There you are

When I grown up

I hope I get the hang of this

I bleed from 6 strings

I let the truth fall from my lips
