

Will Hoge, Better Off Now (Thata You're Gone)

threw away a lifetime you laughed and called it a sin
There ain't ever gonna be a way to work it out not after a night like this
I've been waiting on your call now just the silence and me
I know you want me to chase you around but I'm so tired of asking you please

I'm through with this I'll forget your kiss and move on There will be no sleepless nights I'll be alright from now on I'm better off now that you're gone
Better off now that you're gone

You put me so far down girl I couldn't even stand on my own
Ghosts of you would come back to me whenever I was alone
Now the candles have all burned out and the doors are locked and chained
Have no doubts this time I've figured out a way to end all these games

Nights filled with empty bottles and picking up broken glass
Well I should have known from the very first night that this just would never last
