

Will Hoge, Rock And Roll Star

hail hail rock and roll come here son and let me help you sell your soul sit right down and everything will be just fine sign right here and it will all work out in time sit right down and i will tell you about the plan see i'm gonna make you 50 thousand dollars and i'll only take 10 million but did i mention i got a new mercedes benz smile pretty be witty come meet your brand new friends

(chorus) everybody thinks that you'll go far you're gonna be a rock and roll star now you got a banker and a lawyer on 16th avenue that's the funny things they call you when you spend a couple extra years in school they got big black cars and dollar signs in their eyes too what is a boy like me to do i got this guitar i play a little out of tune but it makes no difference if i get all the right tattoos and hey get a look at these cheekbones who cares if mick taylor was ever even in the rolling stones

(chorus)

besides he didn't even get that far but me i'm gonna be a rock and roll star yes i am so now we're living happy underneath the sony tree i got my big top 10 record on wkd?
Something or other bartender could i have another and another and another you're lucky we're even

(chorus)
