

Will Hoge, (Welcome To) The Big Show

(1 2 1 2 3 4)

breakdown, turn it around don't stand up cause you might get knocked down its all over the set then they give you a smile let you watch anyway i've see it all over the news everybody's been talking with a face full of shoes tv and your radio are all on the blink so get yourself a pistol to learn what to think

(chorus)

tonight tonight we'll hold on tight get your ticket it's time to go welcome to the big show big money bottle of dreams got your cold laced fingers with your cocaine rings want to see the dark side of town so make a deal with the devil and he'll show you around champagne parties with phone call girls ashtray babies with dimestore pearls nickelback jewelry and a velvet chain hollywood hollowfaced down in the rain

(chorus)

(repeat first verse)

(chorus)

welcome to the big show (x3)
