

Will Wakefield, All I Wanted

I saw her at the bar that fateful night
The dark in the room became light
I knew that I had to speak to her
I bought her a drink, I made her laugh
I thought to myself "Boy you have tact"
She asked me why I approached her

I said Cause all I want, all I want is you
I said all I want, all I want is you

We went for a walk that fateful night
Holding hands under a streetlight
She leaned forward, kissed me on my cheek
We finally arrived at her place
She asked me up so I would stay
I asked her why she chose me

She said Cause all I want, all I want is you
She said cause all I want, all I want is you

Well then what happened that fated night
I will always remember until I die
Two lovers will remain unknown
Came together as long as the stars shone
And then the sun arose...

I was at the bar that fateful night,
She came in the room with another guy
She looked shocked to see me there
I asked for her to please explain,
I didn't understand, I felt ashamed
She said I'm sorry, I said I'm sorry too.

I said I thought I wanted, I thought I wanted you.
She said "Its not the truth baby"
I said I thought I wanted, I thought I wanted you.
She said "Come on baby you don't mean that"
I said I thought I wanted, I thought I wanted you.
"Don't you say that say that baby"
I said I thought I wanted, I thought I wanted you.