

Will Young, Take Control

You've had to raid your mind to find your soul you've had to face the fight that planned to fall oh how I see the change that lights in your eyes and now that you've found it maintain the strength to realise

(Bridge)

Day after day he's made you live his sorrow time after time you've lived to sing into his tune (yeah,yeah) this is the reason you start your own adventure now without his, without his love

(Chorus)

And its ok
you'll be fine
and its alright
and its your time I know you'll arrive at the place you've been trying your fine to be someone else
and its ok
your time has come at last
