William Fitzsimmons, Forsake All Others

I've waited for this day for such a long time you are everything i've waited for if memory says i might be disappointed cause a lifetime here with you will seem to short all i see is white that's coming towards me all i've wanted you within my arms if it's required that i forsake all others i'll do that and more

i've waited for this day for such a long time i hope that i can be what you deserve i hope the days get longer and make this love grow stronger god will be the strength and our reason
