Willie Dixon, Grave Digger Blues

Lord I saw the grave digger crying
He had his spade in his hand
He says I shan't bury this woman
Till somebody bury her man
You know the poor boy is dead
Oh but he just won't lay down
Well he just can't stand to see his little baby
In the cold cold ground

What's holding him up man The grave digger wants to know The undertaker never Saw nothing like this before Blood shot tears Falling from his sunken eyes He's too weak to live Too strong to die
