Willie Nelson, Lonely Little Mansion

(I'm a lonely little mansion for sale) Furnished with everything but love I'm looking for someone to come live with me I've got a large picture window And a yard filled with trees The sign reads two stories And that's all that's for sale But there's so many stories I could tell My windows are closed and I'm gasping for air My carpets are spotted With tear stains here and there A torn photograph still lies on my floor And two sweethearts don't live here anymore I'm a lonely little mansion for sale And for someone I'd fit just like a glove I'm a lonely little mansion for sale Furnished with everything but love
