Willie Nelson, Slow Movin' Outlaw

All your stations are being torn down a high flying trains no longer roar The floors're all sagging with boards at a suffering from not being used anymore Things're all changing the world's rearranging a time that will soon be no more Where has a slow movin' once quickdraw outlaw got to go

The whiskey that once settled the dust tasted so fine now taste so faint

And the mem'ries that once floated out come back stronger

And more clearly with each drink you take

And the women who warmed you once thought so pretty now look haggard and old So where has a slow movin' once quickdraw outlaw got to go (guitar)

This land where I travel once fashion with beauty now stands with scars on her face The wide open spaces are closin' in quickly from the ways of the whole human race And it's not that I blame them for claming her bounty

I just wish they're takin' her slow

Cause where has a slow movin' once quick draw outlaw got to go Tell me where has a slow movin' once quick draw outlaw got to go
