

Wilson Phillips, Eyes Like Twins (Corrected)

I reconize that smile
I wonder its oh so cold
You wore your mysterious glow
Just like a child
No careless words were said
We spoke with eyes instead
We looked into eachother like long lost friends
Then you went away
and i never heard
You had a summer haunt
You the ice would kill (echo)
But you would not be caught (echo)

Chorus (*)
We have eyes like twins Where your last thought ends my next begins always, Just one heart beat away From everything I mean to say oh, Catch me I'm falling like you Wish for me I'll come running to save you Touch me I'm calling for you Remember me
I will never betray you
We have eyes like twins (echo)

I slept a thousand hours
My heart felt cold as a coward's (but)You sent a southern breeze like a forest fire (echo)
I heard those voices too
I dreamed each dream with you
We breath as one together and we shed our tears
But then I woke with you
And my dream came true
I'll never hold you here I know that every winter you must disappear... (echo)

bridge

chorus

I see red when your in danger
Knowing the danger
I see blue when you are crying
When you are a stranger at the pictures you believe You are no strangers
