

Wind Walkers, Dissipate

Take me from the lake
Before I drift away
Listen to the way
I wanna feel

Every night
I do it I suppose
I compromised
My paranoia arose
I know it weighs you
Every night
Another disaster that I've Manifested I'm holding
My past on you
I can see the stars align
Every time

Take me from the lake
Before I drift away
Listen to the way
I wanna feel
Like the rest of them
Love with confidence
Trust in innocence
Take me from the lake

If everything I need
Are things that I can't keep
Then I can't tell what's necessary
Watch me break
Come undone
Peel back the skin
I'm fucking vulnerable
Rest assured could kill me
I'll be up all night with envy

Take me from the lake
Before I drift away
Listen to the way
I wanna feel
Like the rest of them
Love with confidence
Trust in innocence
Take me from the lake

Please take me away from the lake baby
I don't think I plead too much
You're lying in my dreams
And I'm up all night long
I don't have the heart to show
Know I'd give anything
Just to feel
Like the rest of them
Love with confidence
Trust in innocence
