

Wind Walkers, Hangfire

It's a feeling
All around
Watching while we're sleeping babe
And drinking when we drown
So deceiving
What a sound
Making deep incisions
Just to have you turn around and say
"Its you pushing all my love away"
And I know it's true
I'm thinking maybe you can stay

I can't leave
Crawling down in my knees
I'm burning up, burning up
I won't take another moment
Caught up in the hell I've opened

In the deep end
Where I'm supposed to be
Where my future and my past is hanging over me
Get some luck and maybe finally I can get some sleep
I can get some sleep
How'd I get so deep
And it's you
Pushing all my love away
What did I just do?
Blame it on my mental state

I can't leave
Crawling down in my knees
I'm burning up, burning up
I won't take another moment
Caught up in the hell I've opened
See
I'm falling for your disease
I'm burning up, burning up
I won't take another moment
Caught up in the hell I've opened

If I make a sound
Chewing up glass I spit it out
Whatever makes you proud
Feeling restless why we never fight this
And if I make a sound
Chewing glass I spit it out
What ever makes you proud
So restless why we never fight this

I can't leave
I'm crawling down in my knees, no
I'm burning up, burning up
I won't take another moment
See
I've fallen for your disease baby
I'm burning up, burning up
