

Winter, Into Darkness

Tolling death bells of the hands of time
Numbing minds forced in thought
Unheard cries of whimpered breath
Penetrating steel
Illuminations fade

Sacrosanct of another life leaving me
Tombs gone rampant
Abominate like plague
Of negative
Pointing comparability
Confirming unknown

Corrupted minds who act for self
Logic seeds born as life
Pods from the grown reliant
Unending quest for hope

Storms of hooded horsemen through dying eyes
The ashes blow--torrent winds
Unanswered cries, for darkness is near
