

Wippenberg feat. Tiff Lacey, Promisedland

You said you would move mountains
Said you would hold the sun in your hand
Bring the stars from the night sky
And lay them at my feet in the sand
Oh the promises that you made
The things that you have said
Can I believe you anymore
Oh you gave your word to me
Pledged your loyalty
Can I believe you anymore
Take my hand
And lead me to the promisedland
Take my hand
And lead me to the promisedland
Say you can, I need to feel I need to understand
Take my hand
You can lead me, lead me to the promisedland
You said you'd always be there
That you'd never let me come undone
Like a mantel, your love would surround me
I only had to ask and then you'd come
Oh the promises that you gave
The things that you have said
Should I believe them anymore
Oh you gave your word to me
You pledged your loyalty
Can I believe this any more
Take my hand
And lead me to the promisedland
